Habitat for Humanity Benefit Concert
Saturday, May 7, 2011 – 7 to 9 pm
Cost: $5 per person
Scottish Rite Center (4090 Commercial St SE)

Salem, Oregon, April 7, 2011 — On Saturday, May 7, the Scottish Rite Center (4090 Commercial St SE) will be filled with music and good cheer as folks gather for a benefit concert for Habitat for Humanity of the Mid-Willamette Valley.

Organized by the Talent In The Getto show, GAN Media, and Holy Cross Lutheran Church, the Habitat for Humanity Benefit Concert will feature bluegrass performers Kathy Boyd and Phoenix Rising, country cover group Talent in the Getto Band, and other talented musicians including bluegrass artists Ken Cartwright, student violinist Kim Martin, and the gypsy jazz trio Faerabella.

Entrance to the concert, which will be held from 7 to 9 pm, costs $5 per person. Tickets can be purchased before May 7 at the Habitat for Humanity office (1220 12th St. SE, Salem) and are also available at Getto Studio (503) 393-2596 and at the office of Holy Cross Lutheran Church.

Concert proceeds go to support Habitat for Humanity of the Mid-Willamette Valley's mission of eliminating poverty housing.

###

Habitat for Humanity of the Mid-Willamette Valley has been serving the community since 1991, working in concert with volunteers, donors, and partner families to build decent, affordable homes in Salem, Keizer, Polk County and the greater Stayton area. To date, Habitat for Humanity of the Mid-Willamette Valley has built more than 75 homes, housing more than 300 individuals— including over 200 children.

Habitat for Humanity is a worldwide, grass-roots movement. There are more than 2,100 active affiliates in 100 countries, including all 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, Guam and Puerto Rico.
