Habitat for Humanity's Annual HopeBuilder Breakfast is November 8
Breakfast and Program to benefit Habitat for Humanity of the Mid-Willamette Valley

Habitat for Humanity's Annual HopeBuilder Breakfast
Tuesday, November 8, 2011 – 8 to 9 am
Salem Conference Center (200 Commercial St SE)

Salem, Oregon, September 16, 2011 — Tuesday, November 8, Habitat for Humanity of the Mid-Willamette Valley and local supporters will gather at the Salem Conference Center to celebrate the impact Habitat for Humanity has within Salem and its surrounding communities.

Presented by Wells Fargo, the HopeBuilder Breakfast will feature a full breakfast and an hour-long program designed to raise awareness of Habitat's mission to eliminate poverty housing and the work it has done to build simple, decent, affordable housing in partnership with local families in need.

The event, which will be held from 8 to 9 am, is free and open to the public; reservations are required and can be made online at www.salemhabitat.org or by calling (503) 364-6642.

Habitat for Humanity of the Mid-Willamette Valley has been serving the community since 1991, working in concert with volunteers, donors, and partner families to build decent, affordable homes in Salem, Keizer, Polk County and the greater Stayton area. To date, Habitat for Humanity of the Mid-Willamette Valley has built more than 76 homes, housing more than 300 individuals— including over 200 children.

Habitat for Humanity is a worldwide, grass-roots movement. There are more than 2,100 active affiliates in 100 countries, including all 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, Guam and Puerto Rico.
